

Baptist High School
Summer Reading List
2018/2019

Please choose and read two (2) books from your grade level for the NEW school year. After reading, you will print out and complete summer reading evaluation forms. The completed reports are to be given to your English teacher on the first day of school in September. This is an actual assignment and it will count toward your first quarter grade! You are responsible to obtain copies of the books you choose. Most of these books are considered classics and can be found at your local library. We trust you will enjoy your summer reading!
